23/155 Public Questions

Judy Brereton reported on behalf of PL24 that they have got agreement from Cornwall Council to cut Polmear Orchard 4 times, the first being as soon as it's dry enough. Once this is done they will look to arrange a work party to re-stake and weed where needed. They get the Cormac trailer so any weeds can be taken away. PL24 are also looking at getting funding for extra seats and have also found Resilient Orchards Cornwall who may be able to help if needed. A successful Wassail had been held there in January and it was hoped it will become an annual event.

23/156 To approve the minutes of the Meeting held on 7th March 2024

It was proposed by Cllr Hughes, seconded Cllr A Wildish and RESOLVED that the minutes be approved and signed by the Chairman.

23/167 Parish Councillors Reports

Cllr C Wildish had met with Cornwall Council and the consultants helping them to write climate adaptation plan for Par and St Blazey. This is a follow on from the Starr project and looks at the potential impacts of future climate change and what can be done

Cllr Hughes reported that the Wicton application will still go to committee due to concerns of residents.

Cllr Truscott said he has reported the poor state of Polpey Lane and the recent land slip that could cut off farm if it gets worse. He has also been approached by householder at the bottom of Polpey Lane whose property flooded recently due to blocked drains

Cllr Phillips reported she no longer wishes to represent council at British Legion meetings and confirmed that she had reported the bad condition of the Treesmill to Wings road.

Cllr Hazeldean queried the increase in council precept. It was done to help us to pay for assets that have been devolved to us and some we expect soon.

The Desalination information group have another event in St Blazey on Thursday next week and wanted to encourage councillors to attend. Cllr

Hughes reminded the council it's important not to express a view as this could exclude anyone that does from any decisions further down the track

Cllr Nicholls asked about progress with website and will submit his proposed content

Cllr Nicholls said he had been approached by people in St Andrews Road who want a zebra crossing by bus stop in St Andrews Road and another outside station

Cllr Phillips reported that Lanescot has suffered badly with fly tipping it has been reported and maybe partly due to charges at waste sites. It's important to get registrations where possible so action can be taken.
