16/87 Matters arising not on the agenda (for report only)

None.

16/88 To receive the Cornwall Councillors reports

Cllr Scrafton – no report

Cllr Taylor – no report

Cllr Hughes – reported

- The Inspector had now completed his inspection of the revisions to the Local Plan and it was anticipated that it would be formally 'made' at the November Cornwall Council meeting.

- Wainhomes had submitted another planning application in Par on the same site as the previous refused proposal, but with minor modifications, including a 3 storey block of apartments on the skyline.
- The appeal on the original Wainhomes application was scheduled for the 12th March at Roche Victory Hall; Cllr Hughes urged as many Tywardreath & Par parishioners as possible to attend to speak about the impact the proposal would have on the village.
- He had asked that a presentation on the Boundary Review be given at the Area Network Meeting

16/94 Tywardreath Allotments

The Clerk was continuing to allocate the plots. Cllr Phillips was struggling to get John Truscott to do the fencing at the Poldrea site so it was agreed that he should be given dispensation to approach Ed Veerman to do the work if it became necessary. A resident of Legion Lane had complained about trees overhanging from the Glenview allotments; Cllr Phillips would inspect the site.

16/95 Neighbourhood Plan

Cllr Hughes reported that he had been unable to attend the first informal meeting of the Steering Group but he had since agreed to take the Chair. The first formal public meeting was scheduled to take place on 27th October in the Par Running Track Pavilion when it was intended to appoint the Steering Group members, including the Chairman and to agree how the project should move forward. The Clerk had emphasised to Gill Butler that, whilst the project should be community led, expenditure should be formally approved by the Steering Group before commitment of funds and invoices should be addressed to the parish council.
