

St Austell Bay Resilient Regeneration Project (STARR)

Funding is being sought for an innovative £20 million scheme aiming to work across the whole of the Par and Sandy river catchments to reduce flood risk to communities living and working in the St Austell Bay area, particularly the people of Par and St Blazey.

