

Steering Group Member Profiles and Community Involvement

In November 2016, an open public meeting was held at which a number of members of the community volunteered to sit on a Steering Group (SG) for the NDP. Due to family, work and other commitments not all the original members have continued to sit on the SG, but most have continued to contribute to the NDP in other ways.

The profiles below of some of the SG and Focus Group members give a “snapshot” of the broad range of skills and experience which is shared within the group. Many of the members also volunteer for other community groups, which are listed at the end of this document.
